About Us

Established in the year 1979, Raju Electricals Delhi is an ISO 9001:2008 certified organization engaged in manufacturing and supplying a wide range of stabilizers, transformers, servo motor and welding machine. Our range is manufactured using copper wire, aluminium sheets, metal studs to ensure higher back up, less power consumption ability and longer service life.

Our rich industry experience enables us to manufacture the superior quality transformers and stabilizers. The state-of-the-art manufacturing unit and experienced workforce are instrumental in fabricating these power control units as per latest market trends. We conduct several tests before supplying it to our clients like no load current test, accuracy test, power consumption test and impact resistant.

Under the able guidance of our mentor, Mr. Manjeet Singh, we have earned a respectable position in the industry. Our ethical policy and transparent business dealing has helped us in carving a strong niche for ourselves in the domestic market.
